AUTUMN 2020 RESOURCES

The University of Washington remains mostly remote during Autumn 2020 quarter, in response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. As we operate under unusual and changing circumstances, the resources on this page will help you find information and help you may need during Autumn quarter at UW.

If you have trouble finding what you're looking for, please don't hesitate to reach out to Philosophy Advising. We will do our best to assist you in finding what you need on campus.

Additionally, Washington 211 is a good resource to connect with statewide resources off campus.

RESOURCES, INFORMATION, AND UPDATES

See the Safety and Wellness page for the Department's workplace plan and other information regarding COVID-19 and the workplace.

COVID-19 SAFE START PLAN

The University of Washington's Safe Start plan is based on the State of Washington's Safe Start plan. Check this page for updates on the various phases of the plan.

FACE COVERING REQUIREMENTS (ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY)

This page explains the requirements of face coverings on campus and provides additional information about how to make homemade masks, etc.

HUSKY CORONAVIRUS TESTING

Voluntary testing at no cost - at locations around campus. Recommended for folks who will be on campus at least once per week.
