HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE MAJOR

WHAT IS HPS?
History and Philosophy of Science (HPS) studies the theories, methods, practices, and institutions of science from historical and philosophical perspectives. It strives to provide a genuinely interdisciplinary structure for critical reflection on science in all its aspects.

DECLARING THE HPS MAJOR
Before declaring an HPS major, a student must complete the following coursework (all classes must be completed with a minimum grade of 2.00 or better):

1. Completion of HSTCMP 311 and 312, PHIL 160 or 460, and PHIL 120.
2. Completion of 10 credits toward the science (Natural World) requirement (see Major Requirements below).
3. Minimum University GPA of 2.00.
4. Completion of 10 credits of composition/writing. The requirement may be met by a freshman English composition course, a "W" course, or any course in which the student has written a graded paper of at least 10 pages (paper to be reviewed by HPS faculty).

To declare the HPS major after completing this coursework, simply make an appointment with the department's undergraduate adviser.
